Second General Round-Up Of Congress Leaders In Bombay

30 PERSONS INJURED IN POLICE CHARGE AT AZAD MAIDAN.

Depressed Class Leader, Sadanand Mrs Sadanand & Mrs Captain "Bagged"

MRS PURSHOTTAMDAS TRICUMDAS JAILED FOR PICKETING MINT

Arrests and convictions of Congress workers were in full swing in Bombay on Thursday, the day's toll being over 50 arrests including three women.

The police carried out the second round-up of Congress workers under the Emergency Powers Ordinance and arrested seven persons all of whom were detained in jail without a trial. They were—

Mr. S. Sadanand, editor of the "Free Press Journal".
Mrs. S. Sadanand.
Mr. G. J. Devrukhkar, leader of the "Depressed" classes.
Sardar Thaman Singh.
Mr. Ramakanta Mehta, and
Mr. Maneklal Gandhi.

"FREE PRESS JOURNAL" EDITOR ARRESTED.

Mr. S. Sadanand was arrested at the "Free Press" office, Dalal Street, at 2-30 p.m. by Inspector Chaudhary of the C. I. D. while Mrs. Sadanand was arrested at her residence at Malabar Hill.

"Don't worry. We will bring Mrs. Sadanand to jail," this is said to be the remark made by the C. I. D. officer when Mr. Sadanand expressed a desire to go to his residence and see Mrs. Sadanand before he was removed to jail. On this assurance Mr. Sadanand accompanied the officer to the Police Headquarters where he found Mrs. Sadanand also under arrest.

LEGAL ACTION AGAINST DETENTION.

It is understood that Mr. Sadanand intends to take legal action against his and Mrs. Sadanand's arrest and detention in jail, and that he has given instructions to this effect to his solicitors to interview him in jail.

50 VICTIMS OF ORDINANCE RAJ.

For participating in the various Congress activities the police made nearly 50 arrests in the city during the day which are as follows—

Sale of "Congress Bulletins,"	4

30 PERSONS INJURED ON AZAD MAIDAN

17 Arrested For Flourishing National Flags

Nearly 30 persons were injured in a lathi charge made by the Bombay Police in front of the Esplanade Police Station late on Thursday evening. A huge crowd which had assembled on the maidan was dispersed by the police earlier without the use of lathis.

But when the police retired to the police station a section of the crowd followed them and jeered at the police. The crowd was partly composed of the riff-raff element who indulged in stone throwing which provoked the police to make a rush and charge with lathis. As a result 30 persons received injuries but only six were removed to the Hospital while the rest were treated on the spot and allowed to go away.

AZAD MAIDAN ABANDONED.

The crowds had assembled on the maidan unaware of the fact that the meeting convened by over 30 commercial associations to protest against the Ordinance Raj had been abandoned. A large force of lathi police was requisitioned to clear the maidan of the crowds. Batches of police surrounded the maidan and attempted to disperse the crowds and for nearly two hours the crowds played hide-and-seek with the police.

Ultimately a police van was brought into the maidan and was driven all around it. Some members of the crowd made it a point to display national flags and wave them but as soon as they saw the approach of the police they would take to their heels.

ARRESTED FOR FLOURISHING FLAGS.

The police arrested 17 persons on the maidan some of whom had courted arrest by coming forward flourishing national flags. An amusing incident was that a mendicant came in the middle of the maidan and made himself quite comfortable while the police were running about chasing a crowd. The man attracted a crowd around him and the police had to ask him to clear off. The latter wanted himself to be arrested because he could be sure of his meal in the jail, but the police thought it better to leave him alone.

TOLL OF VICTIMS.

The Bombay City Ambulance Corps was on service at the Esplanade Maidan, from 4-45 p.m. to 9 p.m. commanded by Capt. J. M. Kothawala and Capt. Baruk T. Mehta and following is the report of the injured persons—

In all 29 persons were treated, out of which 5 being serious were sent to the Nair Hospital, Lamington Road.

The following is the description of the injured persons lying in the Nair Hospital:—

(1) Mr. Bholaram Babu (injury to the Tibia Bone of the right foot); (2) Mr. Ranchhodhbhai Ramjibhai (injury to the Occipital Bone of the head); (3) Mr.

LAUSANNE CONFERENCE.

Not To Begin On Monday?

(Special Cable).
LONDON, Jan. 20. The foreign Office state that conversations between the Governments chiefly concerned with the Lausanne Conference have not yet concluded, and it is evident that the Conference cannot be begun as early as 25th January. Further conversations are now in progress, and the British Government hope that it may be possible to come to a satisfactory agreement with regard to the procedure to be adopted in the course of a few days.

GERMANY'S PATIENCE EVAPORATE.

Berlin.—The patience of German politicians is evaporating, as the possibility of the Lausanne Conference meeting on 25th January fast recedes. Many newspapers opine that France has successfully torpedoed the Conference. Government quarters emphasise her refusal to agree to the prolongation of the Hoover Moratorium until 1933, whereby a definite solution of reparations problem be postponed. The most that Germany is inclined to concede is the prolongation of the moratorium until 15 December on the condition that Powers concerned undertake to reach the final solution of reparations by then.

M. Laval's declaration in the French Chamber, yesterday, has aggravated, rather than eased, the situation, and has merely emphasised the diametrical opposition of the French to German standpoint.

HOW GERMANY WILL RETALIATE

Germany's first retaliatory step, it is expected, will be the publication of figures purporting to show that Germany has already paid more for the restoration of devastated territory than France is entitled to receive.

AVOIDING SOLUTION OF REPARATIONS

Germany On French Move

LONDON, January 21. Berlin.—News of the postponement of the Lausanne Conference reached Berlin too late for comment in official circles, but there is no doubt that the Government deeply regrets the development, fearing that it is bound to aggravate the economic difficulties, not only of Germany but of the world. It is felt that delay will do much harm if it were only for a couple of weeks, but recent news from Paris is interpreted here as implying that France is doing her utmost to avoid a definite solution of the reparations problem and get the Hoover Moratorium prolonged to suit the requirements of the French Home politics.—Reuter.

Trade Ruined By Ordinance Regime.

BOMBAY COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATIONS PROTEST

Urge Immediate Release Of Gandhiji

The wide, deep and ruthless repression reaching even in villages of India has clearly demonstrated to the world—if proof were necessary—that Mahatma alone can speak for India. In these words concluded the important resolution passed by the Vyapari Mahamandal of Bombay (Federation of Bombay Commercial Associations) at its special meeting held on Thursday afternoon at the Bullion Exchange Building.

The meeting was well attended and representatives of various Associations which are members of the Federation were present. Mr. Chunilal B. Mehta (President of the Federation) presided.

The resolution condemned the present repressive policy of the Government and declared that the Ordinance regime had made it well-nigh impossible to carry on business. It demanded that the Ordinances should be repealed and Mahatma should be immediately released. It recommended to its members to foster, promote and encourage indigenous industries including Indian institutions of banking, shipping and insurance.

RESOLUTION.

The following is the text of the resolution:—

"This special meeting of the Vyapari Mahamandal (Federation of Bombay Commercial Associations) composed of the 33 commercial associations of Bombay resolves that:

"It strongly protests against the arrest and incarceration of Mahatma Gandhi and declares its firm conviction against the policy of the Government to rule the country by Ordinances, whose objective is said to be to maintain law and order, but which undoubtedly tends to crush the national life of India. It is further of opinion that the rule by Ordinances has prejudicially effected trade and commerce of India and will soon practically bring them to a stand-still and that until the release and willing co-operation of Mahatma is obtained, the situation will grow more and more difficult.

"It recommends to all the member bodies to foster, promote and encourage to the utmost indigenous industries including Indian institutions of banking, shipping and insurance; to use only Swadeshi articles; to use and wear only Khaddar so that the starving millions may be fed and to preserve gold and stop its outflow with a view to conserve the resources of the country—so that the economic prosperity of the country may be secured.

NORMAL CONDITIONS.

"It condemns the attitude of some non-Indians residing and trading in India and declares its indignation and strong disapproval of the expressions of opinion in favour of the present repressive policy.

"It is of opinion that the promulgation and application of a series of Ordinances has rendered the prosecution of all legitimate business activities well-nigh impossible and in order to be saved from the inevitable losses consequent on the present insecure and uncertain conditions prevailing in the country because of the Ordinances and their operations recommends to its member bodies to do as little business as possible until normal conditions are restored.

"It further points out that the wide, deep and ruthless repression reaching even in villages of India has clearly demonstrated to the world—if proof were necessary—that Mahatma alone can speak for India."

CRICKET, TOURNAMENT AT DHARAVI.

Gorai Carries Away The Trophy

The fourth annual Cricket Tournament of Dharavi Island came to an end on the 3rd January.

The new feature of the game which attracted spectators from all the parts of the island to witness the play, was the fact that the two parties of Gorai which had hitherto remained apart had reunited under the captainship of Mr. German Gomes. Thus strengthened Gorai finally met Utan which carried off the cup on two successive occasions. Although confident of success Utan was baffled by Gorai when led by a veteran cricketer like Mr. Dominic S. Gomes. Utan, however, made desperate efforts, but their attempts proved futile. The fast bowling of Mr. Jerome D'Souza and Mr. Paul Remedios remarkable display of batsmanship which brought credit to Gorai. Thus Gorai was able to beat Utan and carry off the Silver Cup for the first time.

At the request of Mr. Roman D'Cunha, Secretary of the Tournament, Mr. Mathew Henriques presented the Cup to the winners and said a few well chosen words appropriate to the occasion.

The Silver Cup is kept with Mr. Andrew DeMellow, the president of the Cricket Association of Gorai.

BUDGET DISCUSSION IN CORPORATION

Dr. Javie Pleads For Drainage

The Bombay Municipal Corporation Hall was quite empty when the Budget estimates for the ensuing year were discussed on Thursday. As a rule, budget discussion does not appeal much to the councillors, and as in every year, this time too, speeches were delivered practically before empty benches.

Dr. K. E. Dadachanji paid compliments to the Municipal Commissioner for his sagacity and foresight in preparing the budget. Mr. E. R. Hirjeebendji appealed the Corporation not to be stingy towards the Schools Committee, but to encourage free and compulsory primary education. Dr. J. V. Vora, defending the policy of the Schools Committee, requested the critics to point out where and how the expenditure could be reduced by that body. He assured the House that the Schools Committee did everything possible for the spread of the primary education, in spite of the reduced grant they received from the Corporation.

Dr. M. C. Javie reminded the Corporation that year in and year out he had to urge for the speedy execution of the drainage scheme in the north of the city. This scheme, he said, was taken in hand in 1905, and since then a number of experts came to Bombay to advise in the matter. They carried away thousands of gold mohurs as fees and yet nothing had been done to extend drainage in the north. He hoped the present Commissioner would expedite the scheme.

The Corporation then adjourned till Monday.

CORPORATION VS. SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

On the suggestion of Mr. Justice Mirza, Counsel for the plaintiffs, and the defendant retired to discuss if a settlement was possible, when the hearing of the suit filed by the Bombay Municipality against the Secretary of State for India in Council was resumed on Thursday.

As no decision was arrived at all 3 p.m. Counsel moved for an adjournment, which was granted.

THE
BOMBAY CHRONICLE

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1932.

HEAPING ERROR
UPON ERROR.

The Government of Bombay appear to be determined upon alienating the sympathies of that class of public opinion which is not primarily concerned with the political issue but with safeguarding its interests which it apprehends are being injured under Ordinance Rule. Where was the sense of declaring that the meeting proposed to be convened under the auspices of more than thirty commercial associations in this city was illegal? Government have by this ill-considered step indicated their desire to flout those very elements of the community without whose co-operation no civilised State can prosper and no administration can perform its function efficiently for the promotion of public weal. In their drive against the Congress officialdom is evidently ready to stifle the free expression of opinion however eminent the source from which it proceeds. It is true that in the present regime of "rigid administrative measures"—to quote Sir Samuel Hoare's phrase—the executives of firm rule in this Presidency have not to their discredit the "betises" of which one learns so much from other provinces but it is foolish to aggravate the feeling of a whole people by embarking upon measures which have no other object but the vindication of irremovable autocracy.

Any such vindication, however harmful it may be to the work of those who have a longer vision and have not lost hope of securing an honourable and amicable understanding between India and Britain is welcome to a section of the Anglo-Indian Press. The "Evening News of India" for instance in its jubilant mood over the embargo put on the meeting says: "There is no sense in proclaiming the Congress and allied organisations unlawful, if other organisations under the cloak of respectability are allowed to behave in exactly the same way as the suppressed organisations would have behaved had they been left alone." We do not believe even in their present frame of mind the bureaucracy will seek the assistance of our own contemporary or its parent in deciding who is "respectable" and who is not, but the leader will not fail to notice the contemptuous attitude the journal displays towards the various associations of businessmen whose object, as is evident from the resolutions passed by the Vyapar Mahamandal on Thursday afternoon, was to intensify the Swadeshi campaign. Britain is doing the same. She was even ready to go to the length of declaring war on foreign to-matoes. Why are the efforts of Indian businessmen to safeguard their own interests so deeply resented? Government in this country are busy heaping error upon error in their delusion that they can effectively curb the aspirations of a whole people. Their apologists egg them on and render themselves ridiculous in the attempt. India can afford patiently to watch and wait the development of this folly.

THE REAL MEANING

An analysis of the personnel of the R. T. C. Committees has led the "Leader" of Allahabad to deplore the fate of the Round Table Conference. There is no Indian on the States' Inquiry Committee. The interests of British India are not represented on the Federal Finance Committee; although as our contemporary caustically remarks: "We have a faint notion that there are at least a few able and informed men such as Sir Sivaswamy Aiyar, Diwan Bahadur Ramchandra Rao, Mr. Manu Subedar, Pandit Hriday Nath Kunzru, Sir Jehangir Coya-jee" who would have been available. The Franchise Committee is also most unsatisfactory since men like Khan Bahadur Azizul Haq, Sir Mahomed Yakub, Diwan Bahadur Mudaliar have been preferred over Messrs. Ali Imam, Jamal Mahomed and Ramachandra Rao. The "Leader" aptly sums up the exact position thus: "What to speak of Mahatma Gandhi, Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya and other Congressmen, his Majesty's present Government have evidently little use for the large majority of independent-minded non-Congress Indians either."

All this, as we say, true enough. But the tragedy of the situation is "the exceptions which demonstrate the correctness of our criticism". Messrs. Sapru, C. P. Ramaswamy and Jayakar, for instance, can easily understand the whole meaning underlying the composition of these Committees. They must realise also that no constitutional settlement is possible without Mahatma Gandhi, who alone can, as General Smuts said, "deliver the goods". They must be well aware of the fact that the outlawry of "the only active political organisation" in India, followed as it is by the "Leader" says, by "the severest regime of repression since the dark days of the Mutiny" is fatal to the Round Table Conference itself. And yet they have agreed to play the game against the country!

DANGER OF GOLD
EXPORTS

We have had occasion to call the attention of the public to the anti-national attitude of the Government of India in refusing to prohibit the export of gold. It is thought in some circles that since the Government have already secured enough sterling for this year's needs, the embargo may be imposed now. But these people forget that before April the Government must buy the sterling for the first half of the next financial year. The only way to achieve this is to secure the export of twice as much gold as the sterling needs of the country. With its huge load of foreign obligations, with a tariff policy that is impoverishing the industries of the country and intensifying the penury of the masses, is it any wonder that the only thought of the Government is how to get through the financial year? We are told that the gold shipments have been carried out spontaneously and that the purchase of sterling has been in the most "natural and easy" manner. In the first place the Government have through their gold policy allowed the banks to utilise these exports for purposes beyond the limits of trade, in direct contravention of the Ordinance. Secondly, the wrenching of the currency from its gold bearings cannot be called "natural" by any stretch of imagination. Thirdly, while it was easy for the Government to borrow Rs. 50 crores from the Paper Currency

Reserve, it has not been so easy for the country to take up that paper. Fourthly, the people have now replaced valuable gold by paper money whose value may any day become very low through the watering of the currency to an unhealthy extent.

The supporters of Government policy claim that the new money has been demanded by the rise in prices. But can it be held that there has been a rise in prices? The following index numbers go to show that in view of the small rise in the last three months, the inflation is far in excess of currency requirements:

Date	Volume of Index	currency number	crores 1914 eq.
1929 December	179	145	100
1930 September	171	111	100
1931 January	158	98	100
1932 January	179	98	100

It is not possible then to agree that the inflation has been justified by rising prices. Nor is it possible to see any other demand for currency of a "less obvious nature" because it must be more imaginary than the fictitious demand due to higher prices. The real reason is that Government seem prepared to permit and even assist the flight of capital and the only way in which this can be done under existing conditions is to stimulate gold exports unnecessarily. In this connection we understand that purchases in the Bombay bazaar have often been made at unremunerative rates. This suggestion becomes plausible in view of the pressing necessity from the Government's point of view of facilitating the export of gold from this country.

But whether the Government take action or not, it is time that the people recognised the folly of their selling gold for currency of no intrinsic value and they should realise that the gold that they now lose will not come back to them as it has all been going into the vaults of the Central Banks of gold-mad countries like the United States and France. The moral embargo must be enforced by the people on themselves both in their own interests and those of the country.

A DELHI FIAT

The Chief Commissioner of Delhi has had a curious order served on three prominent men of Delhi. He "has reason to believe" that they "had custody of funds which are being used or are intended to be used for the purposes of an unlawful association, namely the Delhi District Congress Committee." He is, therefore, "pleased to prohibit the said persons from paying, delivering, transferring or otherwise dealing in any manner whatsoever with the same: save in accordance with the written orders of the Chief Commissioner."

Having taken for granted certain fundamental preliminaries—the nature and origin of which are not known—he has decided, by his fiat, virtually to lock all the money possessed by these men, except what he may be pleased, on application, to release in due course from day to day. The Chief Commissioner of Delhi may be far too busy to appreciate some likely and serious domestic inconveniences involved in this arrangement. But knowing, as he does, the baneful effects of restraints on trade—he has recently made a most eloquent speech against picketing and boycott—it is rather surprising that he should have failed to realise that no restraint was as fatal to trade as that on money.

Notes of the Day.

Shafi Daudi Leaves Frontier.

On Tuesday Maulana Shafi Daudi modestly took the public into his confidence as regards the public-spirited self-sacrifice that he and his more obscure colleague had determined to make in the interests of "the much distressed people on the Frontier." He was complacently talking of being "busy in this distant land" and of "our stay being prolonged." This benevolent keeper of the Muslim Conference went even so far as to postpone a meeting of his Working Committee. But a telegram despatched from Peshawar on Wednesday says that he has left the Frontier after the completion of his inquiry. Maulana Daudi's desire on Tuesday was to stay here till sufficient relief is felt by the much distressed people on the Frontier. What miracle happened during the next twenty-four hours?

Bringing Law Into Contempt.

We understand that some Magistrates in Andhra have again begun to smell sedition in the Gandhi cap and that in certain places there it is unsafe even for non-Congressmen to walk in the streets with the Gandhi cap on. That is amazing, says the "Leader" of Allahabad. But worse things have become quite common in these days in many other parts of the country. "It is extremely paradoxical," says our contemporary, "that in dealing with men who are accused of defying the law of the land, the very officers of the Government at times show little respect for it." But many of those very officers are now in a position to say: "What we will is law, and woe to those who disobey it." And politicians of the "Leader" school of thought may well ask themselves how much of what they call constitutional agitation is possible in these days of Ordinance Raj.

A Vicious Circle.

The Lausanne Conference seems to be doomed and as Germany thinks, the results of it would be disastrous as much to her as to the world at large. The reasons are not far to seek. The "creditors" of Germany are helplessly animated by individual self-interest. Britain mildly suggests that the question of reparations being inseparably connected with that of inter-allied debts, the successful solution of the former depends on writing off the latter. In other words, America should forego a large part at least of what is owed to her by the Allies. France says the same thing in more direct and outspoken language. America disagrees. The latest is that "the United States Government has informed M. Laval, the French Premier, that Europe must settle its debts problem without interference by the United States." A vicious circle has thus been duly created and we doubt if a brief extension of the moratorium—America has already demurred to the proposal—will be of any use in breaking through it. Meanwhile the consequences of "patriotic" selfishness in the countries concerned are obvious. Germany will suffer first. And the suffering will not be confined to Germany. It seems that Europe is now positively on the brink of a crisis.

Yogic Physical Culture.

A feature of the physical culture movement that is now spreading all over India, is the special importance deservedly given to ancient Yogic system of physical culture as scientifically adapted to modern conditions. The splendid research work in Yoga that has been carried on for several years past in the Kalyayadham of Lonavla by Swami Kuvalayanand and published periodically in the "Yoga Mimansa" has not only done much to popularise yogic physical culture and its great therapeutic value all over the country, but has also attracted the notice of several Western servants. An excellent, popular but thoroughly scientific, presentation of some simple but efficacious yogic exercises and their healing and strengthening effects on the body is to be found in a handy book, "Yogic Physical Culture," by S. Sundaram, (Pages 168, price Rs. 1-8), published by the Brahmacharya Publishing House, Bangalore. The author who is the founder and director of the Yogic Institute of Physical Culture, Bangalore, has fully described in his book about 20 important yogic exercises called "Asanas" and has also clearly explained their physiological effects on the various parts of the body. The book is well illustrated and altogether makes a good introduction to the scientific study of the theory and practice of Yoga. For advanced study, the reader may turn to the works of Swami Kuvalayanand and the issues of "Yoga Mimansa."

SWAMI VIVEKANANDA.

MYSTIC AND MAN OF ACTION.

(By H. BHAVANI SHANKER.)

"Among eminent persons," says Emerson, "who are most dear to men are not of the class which economists call producers; they have nothing in their hands; they have not cultivated corn, nor made bread; they have not led out a colony, nor invented a loom." These are saints and philosophers who renounce the world for the good of all men. They lead us into the 'world of morals or of will'. Such a dynamic personality was Swami Vivekananda, who took us into a region of grandeur which reduced all material magnificence to toys, yet opened to every wretch that had reason the 'doors of the universe'.

Swami Vivekananda whose seventieth birthday anniversary will be celebrated on the 30th of this month, was a great religious teacher. He had not a narrow limited, fighting idea of religion. "I accept all religions," he said, "that were in the past, and worship with them all. I worship God with every one of them." His God's book finished or is it still a continuous revelation going on? It is a marvellous volume—these Spiritual Revelations of the world. The Bible, the Vedas, the Koran and all other sacred books are but so many pages, and an infinite number of pages remain yet to be unfolded. We stand in the present, but open ourselves to the infinite future. We take in all that has been in the past, enjoy the light of the present and open every window of the heart for all that will come in the future. Salutation to all the prophets of the past, to all the great ones of the present, and to all that are to come in the future!

TRUE RELIGION.

Religion for Vivekananda, is synonymous with 'Universalism' of the spirit. "So long as religion was in the hands of a chosen few or of a body of priests, it was in temples, churches, books, dogmas, ceremonial, forms and rituals. But when we come to the real, spiritual, universal concept, then, and then alone religion will become real and living; it will come into our very nature, live in our every moment, penetrate every pore of our society, and be infinitely more a power for good than it has ever been before."

EMPHASIS ON 'SEVA'.

His strength as a powerful spiritual leader lies in his continuous emphasis on service or 'seva'. It was his main principle that the Service of "Daridra Narayana" should be the real service of humanity. His great message was that all the 'low caste' people should be taken as our brethren. We should not only extend our hand of fellowship to them, but they must be embraced as a brother embraces his fellow-brother. This is the gospel that Mahatma Gandhi preaches us to-day. All our efforts to win "Swaraj" will be useless, unless we learn to treat our own brethren as the bone of our bones and flesh of our flesh.

AND ON SELF-RELIANCE.

Very little is known about Swami's political ideals. "The political bondage of India," said Swami Vivekananda, "has suppressed many would-be geniuses and have condemned them to mediocrity. If India were politically free, many great personages and geniuses would have sprung up from the soil like mushrooms." He laughed at the politicians of the day, whose only programme was the passing of some 'pious resolutions' and 'petitioning the Government to do this or that without even thinking of any constructive work for the people and by the people independent of Government aid.' He said, "If we want to be free, we must depend on ourselves and not on the good-will of the Government." And Swami was ready to undergo the greatest hardships for the good of his country. But he had no need to live in (Continued on page 6.)

EMPIRE UNIVERSITIES
CONFERENCE.DISCUSSION ON POST-GRADUATE
STUDIES.

(BY S. V. PUNTAMBEKAR.)

The first subject for discussion on July 10 was "Facilities for overseas students in British Universities." Sir Thomas Holland read a paper. He pointed out after a statistical comparative study of the British students and overseas and Indian students that Indians and others suffered in a number of ways as under-graduates in British Universities, that they did not come up to the level of British under-graduates though they showed better results than other overseas under-graduates in examination. They were handicapped by a life under unfamiliar social and academic conditions and are misled into bad ways; they should support their home universities while they are under-graduates and should only come to British Universities for post-graduate work in specialised studies. In that case they would not waste their time and money, and would utilise them in doing solid work in branches where there is no proper equipment in India at present. He said that there was no colour prejudice in English Universities. At least it is very rare.

INDIAN CONTRIBUTION TO DEBATE.

Discussion on this was quite prolonged and Indian representatives made some points clear about the Indian students' grievances. The first one was the "hindrance" of the Advisers of the High Commissioner for India and that Universities should not go by their advice which was vitiated "by political and not educational considerations." The second was that in non-residential Universities there should be a list of licensed houses in which students must be made to stay and there must be some sort of supervision. The third was some new non-political machinery either of Universities in India, or the Bureau of the Congress or any other responsible body should be evolved to advise students and British Universities about studies and admission. Lastly as long as the British degree has a political and economic value, under-graduates cannot be prevented from coming to England for studies.

HIGH COMMISSIONER PROTESTS

The High Commissioner protested against some of the remarks "Previous articles appeared on December 22 and January 2, 1932."

MEDICAL POST-GRADUATE STUDIES.

The other subject discussed was "Post-graduate study in Medicine and Surgery in Great Britain." I could not be present at the discussion, so I could not take any notes. The same day we were invited to visit the University of Glasgow where we were given tea and shown all the departments and especially the laboratory and lecture hall of Lord Kelvin. We were taken to the new Chapel, to the library and then to dinner. The Chancellor made a very humorous speech and after other after-dinner speeches we returned from 7:30 pleasant visit.

HIGH LEVEL OF DISCUSSION.

The thanksgiving to the Bureau and others was done by the delegates in the morning after the address of the day. On the whole the deliberative side was quite successful and of a very high level. The social and educational side of the Congress was very useful as it put us in touch with great men and efficient institutions. The human contact gave us an insight into many aspects of English Scottish and Colonial character which would otherwise have been impossible. We met some great scholars, some leading men and women in English public life. Our experience was rich and will be useful to us in our own work.

LIMITED SCOPE OF BUREAU.

But if I am asked my opinion about the actual use of the Bureau for our day to day problems of University education I cannot say it will be large or real. The Congress contact and deliberation have their uses but the offices to which we are now asked to pay a very high subscription of 250 per year would not, and could not, be of much use. The expenses we have to incur in coming and going would also be too large for the experience or contact to be gained. This may not be the opinion of all Indian delegates but I have carefully studied the (Continued on page 6.)

TRIFLES.

(BY "P.")

"After all that is said and done, it is not even now impossible to find a way out of the political impasse, if people can keep their head cool," says a peace-maker from Madras. But the water hose is already there.

Sir A. P. Patro says that the advent of Federation in the spring of 1933 is pure fiction. Meanwhile, he appeals to "non-Congress" political organisations to coalesce into one party to support the Government in the maintenance of 'Law and Order'.

The idea seems to be All-India minus Congress—Ad Interim—Federation in our time.

"The lady volunteers continued to patrol the Bazaar till late in the evening."—Lahore Paper. Let us hope it wasn't Soviet petrol.

I have no direct knowledge of it, but I am told that, in the opinion of the "Manchester Guardian," "negotiations must be resumed sooner or later with the Congress or some other body that may succeed it."

If the allegation is true, a man must immediately be placed on the entry of the "Manchester Guardian" into India.

One great advantage of the postponement—preparatory to abandonment—of the Lausanne Conference is said to be that it avoids the danger of the various contending parties coming to very close grips with one another.

In one of his despatches from Peshawar, the Special Correspondent in one of his interviews with the local A. P. Maulana Shafi Daudi says: "There has been some relief to the people in this province after the abandonment of night-raids in villages after January 14. I hope further relief will be coming after the abandonment by Government of day-raids also."

Raids are news to me. But that is not the point. What I want to acknowledge is that I knew that Maulvi Daudi was a man of variegated talents. But this play on the word "raids"! I never knew that he was a brilliant stylist also.

"WHAT OFFENCE,
WHAT PUNISH-
MENT!""Leader" On Brelvi's
Sentence.

If we may say so with all respect there was no occasion for the initial prosecution of that very quiet and useful citizen, Mr. J. A. Brelvi of Bombay. Having sent him to jail for some technical offence, he need not have been released if the authorities thought he could not be safely left at large. But they did release him with a condition attached, which he need not have been expected to accept and respect. He was directed to report himself every day to the police. Scarcely any self-respecting man who does not think he was guilty of any serious offence would care for so-called "freedom on such terms. Much less a Congressman who, conscious but regardless of consequences, was out deliberately to disobey the Government's laws and 'laws'. The expected happened and Mr. Brelvi did not register his attendance before the police. With the consequence that for this omission he was again prosecuted and has this time been sentenced to no less than two years of rigorous imprisonment. What offence, what punishment! Is it in human nature for the subjects of a state to love it the more for such exhibitions of magnanimity?"—"Leader."

STOP PRESS

LONDON, January 21.
It is believed that complete change in fiscal policy is contained in report of the Cabinet sub-committee which has been investigating the question of balance of trade. The report will shortly be submitted to a full meeting of the Cabinet by whom it will have to be considered in detail before any decision is taken as to what policy shall be adopted.

All rumours of the possible agreement among the members are premature as the question has not yet been considered in its entirety and only a part of the report has so far been submitted to the Cabinet. The forecasts of classes of goods to be taxed or extent of tariff are also premature at present.—Reuter.

"Offensive" Against Congress At Thana

PRABHAT FERI AND MEETING DISPERSED

(From Our Correspondent.)

THANA, Jan. 20.
The Thana Police launched an "offensive" against the Congress activities in all seriousness. Yesterday in the morning, a Prabhat Feroi procession was dispersed and four Congress workers were jailed.

At 9 p.m. a large police party consisting of about 50 police constables, some of whom were armed with guns and others with lathis, led by Deputy Superintendent of Police, arrived at the meeting place in the "Gandhi" Chowk and took possession of the place where it was announced that a Congress meeting would be held.

The presence of the armed police naturally created a commotion in the city and a large crowd collected in the "Gandhi" Chowk. At 9-30 p.m. Mrs. Yeshodabai Kotwal, the second Emergency Officer arrived at the meeting place and began to address the meeting when she was put under arrest. A volunteer, Mr. Shintre who was with her was also arrested.

The arrested persons were then marched off to the police lock-up. They were followed by a large crowd of persons who were shouting slogans. Subsequently two others one of them a schoolboy, were arrested for shouting "Bande Mataram." The crowd kept on shouting till 11 p.m. when the police left the place. After midnight all the arrested persons were let off.

Yesterday morning Sjt. D. M. Damle and Sjt. Madhavrao Kaldale who were the first victims of the Emergency Ordinance were let off from the Thana Jail and served with notices.

Yesterday evening two Oriya volunteers, Messrs. Narayana Patro and Syamsundar Mahankado began picketing at an opium shop in the main bazaar. The picketers gave notice of their intention to picket to the Police.

At about 3-30 p.m. while the picketing was going on the District Collector, Mr. T. Bhaskara Rao, I.C.S., Mr. T. Sivasankaran, I.C.S. Sub-Collector, the District Superintendent of Police, the Berhampore Taluk Tahsildar, the Town Sub-Magistrate, the reserve Police with Sergeants, numbering nearly 50, armed with lathis and rifles, came to the scene. The picketers were requested to leave off picketing and when they refused, the Reserve Police charged them with lathis until they fell down. They were then put in a lorry for being taken away.

By this time, all shops in the main bazaar were closed. The news of the beating of volunteers drew crowds which refused to disperse and began to throw stones on the police. There was a regular shower and the police lathi-charged the crowd. The lathi-charge did not succeed in dispersing the crowd and after a warning, the police fired in the air some blank-shots and when the crowds continued to throw stones, the police fired five rounds on the mob. One Swami Babu, a pathak by caste, fell dead on the spot, receiving a shot in the neck, another received a shot in the chest and is now lying in the hospital in a precarious condition. Swami Babu's body was taken in procession last night through the streets to the burial ground. The arrested picketers were taken to the police lock-up.

Messrs. Narayana Patro and Syamsundar Mahankado who were arrested were tried last night by the Town Sub-Magistrate Mr. Ch. Ramamurti and sentenced to 6 months' rigorous imprisonment each and taken to the local Central Jail.

PRESS ACT IN ACTION.

"Congress" Warned.

(From A Correspondent.)

SITANAGARAM, Jan. 17.

Three notices issued by the District Magistrate of East Godavari were served on Mr. R. Venkatarayana, keeper of the Gauhati Adranayagam and printer and publisher of the weekly "Congress" cancelling the old declarations filed by him on 5-11-31 and ordering fresh declarations under the Indian Press Act of 1931.

Warning was also given that security would be demanded immediately on publication of matter relating to the Civil Disobedience movement whether in the form of advertisements or items of news.

He was sentenced to one month's simple imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 200 and was placed in "B" class.

DAVIS CUP AND BRITAIN'S CHANCES.

Borotra And Lacoste Not To Play.

(SPECIAL CABLE).

LONDON, Jan. 21.

Already strong in the hope of winning the Davis Cup in 1932, following the last year's success, the British tennis team seems certain to triumph following the removal of two such obstacles as Borotra and Lacoste, who both have announced their inability to play this year.

Lacoste's family responsibilities including his six months old son Bernard and the business claims have prompted this decision as he says, he is unable to give time for practice.

Borotra who even now does not find time to fulfil his business engagements is also retiring, leaving Henri Cochet, the solitary musketeer of the famous three, who has lifted France to world championship since 1927.

Tilden had previously opined that France and Britain would fight the challenge round. This is now supported by Lacoste to-day. With Cochet, France now has only Boususs left among her fully developed first class players.

CITY NOTES

WHERE IS THE TRADE DEMAND?

OUR FINANCIAL CRITIC.

Bombay, Jan. 21.
In the significant phraseology of the Americans, "As to trade demand there is no such animal". The Government have anticipated heavy trade demand which could not be met out of the borrowings against "eligible" trade bills held by the Imperial Bank. But the markets are all dull and commodities are not moving. Nor are they likely to be very brisk for some time, unless Government propose to perform a dramatic somersault and reverse their political operations. In the meantime, the Bank has borrowed only Rs. 24 crores against Rs. 5 crores of bills.

What has happened is that the Government having had to borrow "in season" and out of season, have called it a "seasonal demand," which is generally applied to trade requirements. During the last week, the securities held by the Imperial Bank came down by Rs. 3,600 lakhs, and they must have received cash against them. Moreover their borrowings against bills have gone up by Rs. 50 lakhs, making altogether Rs. 4,100 lakhs. Out of this the Government have directly borrowed Rs. 2 crores and the balance appears as an increase in cash of Rs. 63 lakhs and partly in the writing down of the Reserve Fund to Rs. 5 crores by Rs. 42 lakhs.

In the money market there are plenty of funds and the Rs. 4 crores odd of unlent money is sagging rates down to even 4 per cent. In the midst of this plethora of funds, so to say, where is the trade demand? If there was genuine demand, the market would have refused to renew Treasury Bills and used the funds for trade. But this is not happening.

THE MARKETS TO-DAY.

Most of the markets have been officially closed down owing to the feeling of unrest and though some attempts were made to reopen them, there has been little success. In practice there has been no business at all.

TREASURY BILLS.

The market attaches much importance to the failure of the Government to get more than a paltry Rs. 26 lakhs through open tender this week. It is regarded as an indication that the Bank rate is not believed to reflect the state of money conditions. The next week there are bills to the extent of Rs. 535 lakhs and it is doubtful if the money will flow back to the Government coffers.

STERLING EXCHANGE.

Though the Government were able to obtain the whole of their £ one million at 1/6 3/32, tenders were made at lower rates. In the market, the absence of gold bills which were the only sustaining factor made banks unwilling to sell at even 3/32d. and, if the present scarcity of bills should continue, it is more than probable that there will be a drop in the rate next week.

COTTON CONSUMPTION IN MILLS.

According to the report of the Central Cotton Committee, the increase in cotton consumption by Indian mills this year was maintained in December, the cotton used was 217,770 bales against 205,824 bales last year and the total for four months was 799,587 bales against 738,586 bales last year.

CURRENCY RETURNS.

The currency returns as of the 15th January show that the note circulation increased by Rs. 3,50 lakhs while the actual increase in currency was Rs. 5,38 lakhs, there having been a withdrawal of nearly Rs. two crores in silver rupees. This is a sign that the people are demanding some more valuable substitute than the note for their stocks of gold. The increase of securities to Rs. 54,63 lakhs must be taken as an indication that the limit of Rs. 50 crores allowed under the Paper Currency rules has been reached, the balance being 3 per cent. and 3 per cent. paper.

IMPERIAL BANK OF INDIA STATEMENT.

The statement of the Imperial Bank of India as of the 15th January shows a development of the inflationary policy of the Government. Securities are down by Rs. 360 lakhs which almost wholly represents the "buddie" sale to Government. But this money has been borrowed back by the Government under Ways and Means, so that Public Deposits have gone up by Rs. 62 lakhs to Rs. 7,55 lakhs.

DECEMBER TRADE RETURNS.

The Overseas trade for December for all India shows exports at Rs. 15,93 lakhs against 13,72 in November while imports were Rs. 9,25 lakhs against Rs. 8,63 lakhs. Net export of treasure was Rs. 16,88 lakhs against Rs. 8,14 lakhs last month.

THE REPARATIONS MORATORIUM.

The American Ambassador has shown a way out of the impasse of Reparations by saying that the first payment is due only by the end of December which is an actual extension of the Hoover idea. But France is raising new bogies such as Germany is preparing for war. What a tangle! And Germany has to pay her commercial obligations in February and then there will be startling developments.

SIR R. CRADDOCK'S PORTRAIT.

QUESTION OF REMOVAL FROM C. P. COUNCIL.

NAGPUR, Jan. 21.

A resolution recommending to the Government to remove the portrait of Sir Reginald Craddock from the Council Chamber was balloted for discussion in the C. P. Legislative Council to-day. Before the resolution was taken up, Rao Bahadur Nayudu said that the matter was one concerning the internal decoration of the Council Hall and as such it was purely within the purview of the members of the Council to decide whether the portrait should remain or should be removed and there was no occasion to make any recommendation to the Government. Mr. Nayudu suggested that a small Committee consisting of the President, the different party leaders and the mover should consider the question. This suggestion was approved by Sir Arthur Nelson, the Leader of the House, and also other party leaders. The resolution was accordingly dropped.—A. P.

FRENCH AIR MEN'S FLIGHT

96 Hours Sleeplessness

CALCUTTA, Jan. 21.

M. Cudos and M. Robeida, two French airmen who recently put up record trans-India flight from Karachi to Calcutta are now striving to break another record set up about fifteen months ago by their fellow countryman Costes and his companion who flew from Hanoi in French Indo-China to Paris in five and a half days.

M. Cudos and M. Robeida left Hanoi this morning at six o'clock reaching Calcutta at 3-45 (S.T.), this afternoon after a non-stop flight thus easily beating Costes record for non-stop flight of thirteen and a half hours. After taking refreshments and loading three hundred and fifty gallons of petrol the airmen left Calcutta at eight in the evening on non-stop flight to Karachi.

From there they will fly continuously day and night and they hope to reach Paris on the 24th thus setting up a new world record.

As only one of the airmen is a pilot and the other is a navigator this will mean 96 hours' sleeplessness for both.—A. P.

"SITUATION, OTHER- WISE QUIET."

But For Arrests And Convictions.

OFFICIAL APPRECIATION OF DISTRICT ACTIVITIES

The Director of Information, Bombay, writes:—

Bombay, Jan. 21. In several districts there have been arrests and convictions arising out of meetings held in defiance of orders issued by the District Magistrates or of notices served under section 4 of Ordinance II. Otherwise, the situation in the mofussil remains quiet and undisturbed.

In Ahmedabad, a house was raided and cyclostyle copies of an unauthorised publication were seized.

In Surat district nobody appeared at a meeting that was announced. Drivers of public conveyances in this area are now refusing to carry Congress agitators. Several more prisoners have been released on their tendering apologies.

In Broach, agitators who have taken refuge in Baroda territory continue to come secretly into the district at night, but there are no signs of any of the inhabitants leaving the district. In Sholapur, five youths took out a probatum plet and were arrested, but on the appearance of their relatives, they tendered apologies and were accordingly released.

CONGRESS' ACTIVITIES "WEAKENED"

Official Review.

The Director of Information, Bombay, writes under Wednesday's date:—

"There are but few signs of Congress activity in the mofussil. In Ahmedabad, there was no procession or public meeting on the 17th. The efforts of interested individuals to make money by depreciating the value of currency notes and inducing people to sell notes at a discount for silver rupees appear to have been checked and the demand for silver at the Imperial Bank is now subsiding. A cyclostyle used for the preparation of unauthorised news sheets has been seized by the police.

In Surat, the attempts at picketing are perfunctory. More of the persons arrested or convicted have given apologies and under takings, and such cases are being dealt with leniently. In Bardoli, some of the Khatedars are voluntarily paying up their land revenue in advance of the due date. In Kaira also the number of recalcitrant villages is going down and while agitation against the payment of revenue persists locally, in the greater part of the district land revenue collections continue to be very satisfactory.

HARTAL AT BROACH. In Broach there was a hartal on the conviction of one of the Congress leaders of the district, while in Poona there were some arrests as the result of a meeting. Two individuals who had started preaching non-payment of land revenue in Sirur were arrested. "In Sholapur two convicted persons have apologised and been released, while in Kolaba district, people with moderate views are inclined to separate themselves from Congress activities.

"In Sind processions organised to protest against the visit of His Excellency the Viceroy aroused little interest. In the Province generally, there is very little agitation.

IN BELGAUM. In Belgaum district some individuals are going about preaching breach of the Salt Law and the cutting of toddy trees and action is being taken against them. In Hukeri taluka, to which the Congress have given special attention in the past, non-payment of land revenue is still being preached."

Children's Day Celebrated In Poona

(From A Correspondent)

POONA, Jan. 20. The 3rd anniversary of the Children's Day in Poona was celebrated by the pupils of the Practising School and other schools on the 16th instant. The children got a holiday and the parents were requested to extend kind treatment to them on that day. Parents were also invited on the occasion. The pupils assembled on the playing-ground at 8 a.m. and said their prayer in common, and were given sweets. Principal Tayde read the message of the Governor of Bombay.

"Trautman" are expected during February, while S.S. "Dalgona," S.S. "Clan Malcolm" and S.S. "Masula" during March 1932.

STEVENS MURDER TRIAL

Judgment Reserved

"A CASE OF TERRIBLE SUSPICION" SAYS DEFENCE COUNSEL

CALCUTTA, January 21. The Advocate-General to-day took an hour to conclude his final argument on behalf of the Crown before the Special Tribunal in the Stevens Murder trial.

He pointed out at the outset that there was no suggestion of "brudge" either by Mr. Stevens or any officer or by the police, who were described as "arch devils engaged in ruthless repression" against the girls. Evidence showed, proceeded the Advocate-General, that the girls came to murder Mr. Stevens shoot him like a dog with premeditation and calculation.

"A TRIUMPH AND GLORY." The accused's demeanour in jail when the confession was recorded was one of triumph and glory in succeeding in killing a Magistrate. It was one of defiance at the whole world, and not the cringing attitude adopted now when an attempt was made to defeat justice by making false suggestions against responsible people.

FOUGHT LIKE TIGRESSES. The accused had fought like tigers when caught after the occurrence and not the innocent lambs they were now represented to be. Characterising the defence suggestion that revolvers were left by other persons after the crime as "mean malicious and false" the Advocate-General denied serious assault on the accused.

THANKFUL THAT THEY WERE NOT LYNCHED. The girls should be thankful that they were not lynched on the spot and also thankful to Mrs. Stevens for preventing maltreatment. On the evidence the Advocate-General claimed that the case had been proved to the hilt. On the question of sentence he left the matter in the hands of the Court pointing out that the youth of the accused was to be considered, not the sex, in passing orders.

THEIR HANDS WERE CLEAN. In the course of his final argument for the defence Mr. B. C. Chatterjee said that on the one hand as one began to think of the case one's version was blurred by the tears of the poor widow, one's judgment almost overwhelmed by the sorrow of the bereaved mother. On the other hand, the girls, just on the threshold of their lives, had definitely instructed Counsel to say that they were not in the crime. It was a case of terrible suspicion against the girls but their hands were clean. Concluding Counsel stressed the youth of the accused in determining the sentence.

The judgment was reserved till a date which has not been fixed. —A.P.

SWAMI VIVEKANANDA.

this age of 'War of Right and Liberty,' to denounce and expose the 'exploitation' of idealism, and the 'colossal hypocrisy' which has culminated in Geneva, Paris, and London. "Patriotism," he said, "is a phase of a profession of quasi-religious faith." It is too often a mask for selfishness, "Love, Peace, Brotherhood, etc., have become mere words to us. . . . Each one cries: 'Universal Brotherhood! We are all equal. . . . And then immediately afterwards: 'Let us form a sect!' It is indeed a disease. Men who really feel the brotherhood of men do not talk much about it; they work and they live."

HIS PROPHECY.

Though thirty years have rolled on since the great Swamiji passed away, we still hear his voice, as if ringing in our ears:

"The longest night seems to be passing away, the sorrest troubles seem to be coming to an end at last, the seeming corpse appears to be awakening and a voice is coming to us. Like a breeze from the Himalayas, it is bringing life into an almost dead bones and muscles, the lethargy is passing away, and only the blind cannot see, or the perverted will not see, that she is awakening, this motherland of ours, from her deep long sleep. . . . None can resist her any more, never is she going to sleep any more; no outward powers can hold her back any more; for the infinite giant is rising to her feet. . . . Those who have eyes to see will believe that the prophecy has come true."

Round Table Knights To Meet In Delhi

BUT NO PROGRAMME CHALKED OUT YET

NEW DELHI, Jan. 21. The Political Correspondent of the Associated Press understands that the Consultative Committee of the Round Table Conference will hold its first session in New Delhi in the room of the League of Nations Union in the Council House, where the Secretariat of the Committee has already been installed.

NO PROGRAMME YET. The object of holding the first three meetings at the Viceroy's House, is to enable Lord Willingdon to preside in just the same manner as the Premier presided over the Conference deliberations in London. The Committee will review points arising out of the Round Table Conference Committee's discussions, but no programme has yet been finally chalked out for the first session.

Indications as to the lines on which the Consultative Committee will work are expected to be made known by the Viceroy himself on the 25th, but it is reliably learnt that the Committee will not only deal with the matters under investigation by Lord Willingdon and other Round Table Committees, but also consider other subjects not referred to these Committees such as foreign relations.

FEDERAL FINANCE. The Federal Finance Committee meets in Delhi on the 30th. It is understood that Mr. Shanker Rao, who was appointed a member and Secretary of this Committee, has, on grounds of health, expressed his inability to serve thereon, and Mr. Sanjeeva Rao, Assistant Secretary in the Finance Department, has been appointed in his place as Secretary. A good deal of spade-work connected with the Federal Finance is being done by Messrs. Nixon and V. S. Sundaram (till recently Secretary, Central Board of Revenue). The former on the expenditure side and the latter on the revenue side. —A.P.

The Devolution Rules are also ready and the final touches are being given to a scheme for subvention from the Central Government which will be voted annually by the Central Legislature.

The rules of business in the Legislative Council and the standing orders are also nearly ready and will follow mainly those that are in force in the Punjab. —A.P.

MORE LIGHT ON "PAROLE"

The Director of Information, Bombay, writes:—

One Mr. Motichand G. Kapadia was convicted and sentenced in the Court of the Presidency Magistrate, Third Court, on Friday last for the breach of an order under section 4 of Ordinance II requiring him to report himself daily to the Police. The facts of this case are interesting.

The order under section 4 contained a clause requiring Mr. Kapadia to abstain from activities in furtherance of the civil disobedience movement, as well as the clause requiring him to report himself to the police. At the time of service of the order, he was clearly given to understand that if he chose to give an undertaking in writing that he would comply with the direction to abstain from unlawful activities, the obligation of reporting to the police would not be insisted upon. He went away without giving any such undertaking and thus rendered himself liable to the punishment which he subsequently incurred.

EXTERNED, BUT DID NOT LEAVE

Arrest In Allahabad

ALLAHABAD, Jan. 21. A notice to leave Allahabad has been served on Mr. Adarnath Capoor said to be the manager of an estate in Cawnpore. Pandit Bishambarnath, on whom a similar notice was served yesterday, was arrested last night on the expiry of twelve hours.

At the last place, the police took possession of the Congress Office. On the entreaties of the lady owner of the house, the police however gave up possession, but took away all office materials found there. At Gorakhpur, a meeting of the Depressed Classes condemned the Civil Disobedience movement, while at Manjampur, in Allahabad District, a meeting of Zemindars, Thakur Jaswant Singh presiding, resolved to counteract and combat the "no-rent" campaign. —A.P.

Separate charges were framed under Sec. 17 (1) and 2 of the Cr. L. A. Act and Sec. 4 of the Ordinance II. The trial will continue to-morrow.

A FREAK OF NATURE.

CHITTAGONG, Jan. 14. On the night of the 8th instant at village Dhorola, District Chittagong, writes a correspondent in "Advance" the wife of Babu Mandir Lal Chaudhury, a medical practitioner, gave birth to twin daughters alive, the belly and chest of the one being inseparable in belly and chest with the other and in the posture of one facing the other but having all other limbs and organs distinct and separate. They were of full-grown size and of healthy and perfectly developed limbs without any defect and each having two sets of teeth prominently visible. The delivery was effected most skillfully and safely by Mandir Babu himself without recourse to any operation or anything like it. The babies died shortly after the delivery and their bodies have been preserved in spirit in a glass flask. There was and is nothing wrong with the mother and she is doing well. A large number of people including European military and police officers had been there and people from all quarters are every day pouring in, to have a look at them.

BOMBAY, Thursday.

The meeting convened by the commercial community of Bombay at Azad Maidan on Thursday evening to protest against the Ordinance Raj and to demand unconditional release of Mahatma Gandhi has been abandoned, consequent on the ban placed upon the meeting by the Police Commissioner.

The following communique was issued by the Secretary of the Organising Committee of the meeting on Thursday morning:—

"The public meeting of the Bombay Commercial Community which was to be held at 5 p.m. to-day, at Azad Maidan, under the joint auspices of 30 commercial associations, has been notified by the Commissioner of Police as offending against the order of the Chief Presidency Magistrate under Section 144 Cr. (1) Mr. B. J. Deorukhkar, Secretary of the Depressed Class Nationalist party.
(2) Mr. Ramkant Mehta, and
(3) Sardar Thaman Singh, leader of the Sikhs in Bombay. All of them were conveyed in police vans to the Byculla House of Correction.

DADAR ARRESTS.

On Thursday morning a public meeting was arranged at Tilak Maidan. The public as well as the police were seen in the vicinity of the Maidan since morning. Mr. J. S. Patel arrived at about 9-10 a.m. and addressed the meeting. While addressing he was put under arrest along with 2 volunteers named (1) Rammurti and (2) Y. K. Surve bearing National Flags.

Mr. G. S. Kanthi who was also let off with Mr. I. S. Patel after being served with the notice and who failed to report to the police on Wednesday is being searched since then.

As people were still moving about the Maidan, the police while dispersing them arrested one, Mr. Moreishwar, Engineer.

MR. I. S. PATEL RE-ARRESTED.

For Defying Police Ban.

Mr. I. S. Patel, a member of the Bombay Municipal Corporation, was re-arrested on Thursday morning at Mahim, Bombay, for defying the order of the Police Commissioner to report himself every day to the police. It will be recalled that Mr. Patel was arrested on January 6 along with a host of Congressmen under the Ordinance and detained in the Byculla Jail. He was released on Tuesday last, and an Order was served on him by the Police Commissioner requiring him not to participate in the Civil Disobedience movement and to present himself every day at the Mahim Police Station between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Mr. I. S. Patel was arrested at Mahim on Thursday morning by Inspector Karnik while he was addressing a meeting.

Messrs. K. B. Kubal, Taralkar and Kanthi who were also released from the Byculla Jail on Tuesday last have failed to report themselves to the police.

MR. PATEL GETS 18 MONTHS' R. I.

Later Mr. I. S. Patel was placed before Mr. N. T. Jungalwalla, Presidency Magistrate, at the Dadar Court, on a charge under section 21 of the Emergency Powers Ordinance, and sentenced to 18 months' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 500 or in default 6 months further imprisonment.

PROCESSION BROKEN UP.

Three Arrested Persons Get 6 Months' R. I.

A procession of about a hundred people going along Girgaum Back Road on Thursday morning shouting slogans was broken up by the Maharavadi police. Bombay and three persons carrying national flags were put under arrest. They were: Vinayak Shivram, Narayan Krishna, and Tukya Ramji.

The accused were charged before Mr. I. N. Mehta, Presidency Magistrate at the Girgaum Court for defying the Chief Presidency Magistrate's order under section 144. Deputy Inspector Shirazee gave evidence.

The Magistrate sentenced the accused to six months' rigorous imprisonment each.

PICKETING OF MINT CONTINUES.

Mrs. P. Tricumdas And 9 Volunteers Arrested. And Jailed.

The Bombay Mint again attracted large crowds on Thursday due to the picketing operations of men and women volunteers. A police party armed with lathis also posted itself near the gates.

The first to be arrested for picketing was Mrs. Purshotamdas Tricumdas and a batch of 9 volunteers.

The picketing at H. M.'s Mint took a more aggressive turn on Thursday than on any other day before. Since the picketing began at the Mint about ten to twelve volunteers used to offer themselves for arrest, but on Thursday twenty came in small batches in quick succession after the arrests of the previous batches. The police were therefore kept busy arresting the volunteers as well as clearing the crowd who generally throng in a very large number to witness the picketing. The first person to offer arrest was Mrs. Purshotamdas Tricumdas whose husband is arrested under the Ordinance and detained in the Byculla House of Correction. She was followed by other volunteers.

Mrs. Vri Kumaribai Purshotamdas Tricumdas, Sit. Vasudeo Narayan, and Babulal, who were arrested in the first batch were placed before the Chief Presidency Magistrate in the morning. Mrs. Purshotamdas admitted having gone to the Mint to picket and to dissuade people from getting inside the Mint. The other two volunteers also made similar statements and were sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 50 each or in default six weeks' further imprisonment.

The other batches of volunteers were awarded similar sentences.

SPECTATOR ARRESTED.

Jotishwar N. Sanyal, a spectator, was arrested near the Mint, by the police for disobeying the order of the Commissioner of Police prohibiting the crowd collecting near the place of picketing.

Sub-Inspector Akut giving evidence stated "This fellow would

THREE PERSONS GET 6 MONTHS' R. I.

Following a salt satyagraha demonstration at Chowpatty, Bombay three persons including the "Dictator" of the Girgaum Ward, were arrested by the Gamdevi Police on Thursday morning. The names of the arrested persons were:—

- (1) Kashiram Jadhav, "Dictator" of Girgaum Ward.
- (2) Maneknarayan, and
- (3) Kashiram Trimbak.

A crowd of several hundred persons witnessed the Satyagraha. As contraband salt was being manufactured Inspector Forster of the Gamdevi Police Station with a posse of lathi police arrived on the scene and arrested three persons. They seized a segree, and utensils used for salt preparation and also a national flag carried by one of the arrested men.

All the three arrested men were charged before Mr. I. N. Mehta, Presidency Magistrate, Fourth Court with assisting the operations of an unlawful association, under Section 17 Clause 1 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act. One of the accused said to the Court that salt manufacture was permissible under the Delhi Truce and the report of the Magistrate was "There is no Delhi Truce now."

All the accused pleaded guilty and were sentenced to 6 months' rigorous imprisonment.

HARTAL IN BOMBAY.

Protest Against Ban On Meeting.

There was partial hartal in Bombay on Thursday as a protest against the order of the Police Commissioner banning the meeting of the commercial community convened at the Azad Maidan. The Cotton Brokers' Association did not transact any business while the Mulji Jetha Market was closed. The Mangaldas Market, however, was kept open. Shops in Fort were subjected to the vigorous picketing as usual.

"MANCHURIA, KEY TO FAR EAST" "China Encouraged Japanophobes."

LONDON, Jan. 21. Tokyo.—"Manchuria is the key to the peace of the Far East" declared Mr. Yoshizawa, the new Foreign Minister in a statement to the Imperial Diet. He emphasised that Japan had no territorial ambitions in Manchuria and would uphold the principles of open door and equal opportunities. He dwelt on the anti-Japanese movement in China and alleged that the Chinese Government encouraged "Japanophobes." He expressed satisfaction at the "impartiality and non-interference" of the Soviet Government.—Reuter.

EDITOR'S APPEAL REJECTED.

"Two Different Voices."

The Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Broomfield of the Bombay High Court summarily rejected the appeal filed by Chimanlal Revankar, Editor of the "Hindu," a daily of Surat, who was sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 1,000, in default six months' additional imprisonment by the District Magistrate of Surat on a charge of sedition for publishing an article headed "Inquilab Zindabad" (Long Live Revolution). The case for the defence was that the accused had received the article from a writer outside, and it was an adaptation of a story which appeared in a Hindi magazine "Hansa" in its issue of May 1931. The original writer and editor of "Hansa" had not been prosecuted. Further in the same issue of the "Hindu" on another page appeared a story, wherein non-violence was preached. In June 1931, when the article appeared, the country was at peace. The District Magistrate, Surat, not believing the defence, convicted and sentenced the accused as above on January 11, 1932. Against this order the accused preferred an appeal.

The Chief Justice, in the course of his judgment, held that the whole tenor of the article was to extol the conduct of the two people, who were supposed to have murdered two English officers. The Magistrate was right in thinking that the case fell within Section 124-A I.P.C. The word 'disaffection,' included all feelings of enmity. It was quite true that in the same issue of his paper, the appellant published an article extolling non-violent methods of opposition to Government. But if a person chose to speak in the same publication with two different voices and one of those voices brought him within the reach of the criminal law, it was no excuse for him to say that the other voice expressed his real views. The public did not always read the whole of a newspaper. The appeal, therefore, must be summarily dismissed.

The sentence was no doubt severe, but His Lordship did not see any sufficient reason for interfering with it.

Mr. Justice Broomfield agreed. Mr. G. N. Thakur with Mr. H. M. Choksey appeared for the appellant.

The police are pursuing enquiries.

RE-ARRESTS IN SURAT.

Sjts. Chimanlal Chinoy & Chhotubhai Marfatia.

SURAT, Jan. 20. Sjts. Chimanlal Chinoy and Chhotubhai Marfatia two of Congressmen who were released this day on parole were re-arrested this evening because they failed to report themselves at the police station. Khan Bahadur Antia, the Police Officer, before effecting the arrests enquired whether they had been prevented by adverse circumstances such as illness from reporting themselves. He was informed that the object in not reporting was to commit a breach of the order.

The police also went in search of other Congressmen who have not reported themselves since their release, but they could not be found and no information about them could be gleaned from any of their relations.

It is now understood that eight and not twelve persons were released to-day on parole.—A.P.

LOOT AND ARSON BY GUJARS.

Alleged Assault On Police Party

The Publicity Officer, Jammu and Kashmir State, wires from Jammu under date 20th January:—

A report from Reasi, states that five shops and houses were looted and one house and some postal articles were burnt by Gujars in the village of Darial. A constable was injured. The police and military are proceeding to the spot.

Three constables, while on patrol duty, and two others proceeding to fetch rations from a nearby village were suddenly attacked by the local inhabitants who, after belabouring the police party, succeeded in forcibly taking possession of a gun and currency notes worth Rs. 20, and other articles with the police. The case is being investigated.

The outrage occurred near Machel village, Kishthar Tehsil, Udhampur District.

Information was received last evening that a banker who had gone to take possession of some land decreed in his favour was murdered at Rattian near Rambrsinghpura. A Gujar after remonstrating with the banker attacked him with a sword and killed him. No political significance is attached to this incident.—A.P.

DETONATOR EXPLOSION.

A Churni Road Sensation

On Wednesday evening a great sensation was caused in the Churni Road Junction area, when a loud report was heard, and the report went round that a bomb was thrown. On enquiry it was found, however, that there was nothing very serious about the matter. It appears a sweeper girl came across a detonator which she found lying on the ground. Out of curiosity she picked it up and threw it away. It immediately exploded. No one was injured.

The police are pursuing enquiries.

GERMANY PREPARING FOR POWERFUL ARMY?

French General's Bombshell

"INCULCATING SPIRIT OF REVENGE."

LONDON, Jan. 20. Paris.—A sensational allegation that Germany is preparing a powerful army in spite of the Treaty of Versailles was made in the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Chamber, to-day, by General Bourgeois and Monsieur Ecard, members of the Senate Commission entrusted to report on armaments.

General Bourgeois declared that Germany was organising her industry and armaments on parallel lines which would permit of an extremely rapid mobilisation of war supplies. He added that very active propaganda was being carried on to inculcate the spirit of revenge even among school children.

M. Ecard declared that the German budget contained under camouflaged headings much larger expenditure on military purposes than was admitted. The allegations which will be discussed at a later date created profound impression on the Committee.—Reuter.

EXTENSION OF MORATORIUM NOT POSSIBLE

Private Memorandum Of U. S. To France.

(Special Cable). LONDON, Jan. 20. Paris.—The attitude of the United States, in deciding that there is no possibility of the Congress granting extension of Moratorium to America's European debtors, is explicitly defined in a private memorandum which was handed to the French embassy at Washington a week ago, and it, evidently, governed the attitude of the American Ambassador when he interviewed M. Laval on Saturday.

The substance of the memorandum reveals that the United States' Government does not admit any connection between Reparations and debts and opines that the initiative in the reparations problem must be taken by the European powers, that no request for further moratorium for debts would stand chance of approval by the Congress, that Government would regard with disfavour united front of its debtors to whom it could not give any general understanding, that the existing debt settlements were concluded separately and could only eventually be revised by separate agreements and that the European Governments could pay their debts if they restored mutual confidence and reduced their armament expenditure.

No further communications from Washington on the question of extension of moratorium are expected here. There is prospect, therefore, of France, either alone or in conjunction with Britain and other Allied debtors of the United States, informing Washington that she will be unable to continue her debt payments as long as she receives nothing from Germany.

The prospects of the Lausanne Conference are still indeterminate.

Record Break Of 4137.

LONDON, Jan. 20. Playing at Thurston Hall, Lindrum established a new world's record break of 4137 against his previous world's best of 3905 which was also made in London on a former visit. Continuing yesterday's unfinished 8151 Lindrum to-day broke down a difficult cannon when it looked like going on indefinitely. The aggregate time for the break was about three hours. The present score is Davis (received 7,000), 8,644. Lindrum 7,162. The match only began on Monday and lasts a fortnight.—Reuter.

Sodium Factories Blown Up.

(Special Cable). LONDON, Jan. 20. Bergen.—Two large sodium factories warehouses were blown up as a result of the rising of river waters at Vadheln. Near Hovgange 62 tons of sodium exploded and great panic was caused when timber stores and houses caught fire. Gases from burning sodium drove the populace to take shelter higher up the valley.
